Tune in to the coming shows

award-winning “God, Country, Notre Dame: The Story of Father Ted Hesburgh, CSC,” which has aired on The Hallmark Channel and is currently airing on public TV stations across the country.

Family Theater Productions was founded in Hollywood in 1947 by Servant of God Father Patrick Peyton, CSC, the “Rosary priest,” Catholic media pioneer and now sainthood candidate. Father Peyton is remembered fondly for the phrase: “The family that prays together, stays together,” which Family Theater proudly carries as its own slogan.

The television interview will discuss the importance and relevance of Papal Encyclicals today as they touch upon the importance of social justice in the world today.

Father Willy Raymond, CSC a priest of the Congregation of the Holy Cross will be interviewed by Father Mike on the 15th of May. The topic of the show will be Social Justice as experienced in Papal Encyclicals from Pope Leo XIII to Pope Benedict XVI.

Since September 2000, Father Raymond has served as National Director of Family Theater Productions . Father leads his staff in the production of television dramas and documentaries, including the Father comments on several Papal documents but especially three that strike him as especially relevant: Leo XIII’s Rerum Novarum, Paul XI’s Populorum Progresso and Benedict XVI’s Caritas in Veritas.

Remember: you are always welcome to attend all our tapings! Welcome Father Willy to our studio!

FROM THE EDITOR

Following our final taping on the 15th of May we “wrap” productions until the new school year starts in September. Now begins the summer months, which allow for quieter times although the work still goes on. We want to thank all of those who have made these shows possible. Who knows how many lives have been touched and helped as a result. Have a great summer!

Remember, our past shows can always be found on our website: www.wordnet.tv.
